brisk pace, but found White willing to mix with him at all times. White waited are fully for openings, in the evident hope of shooting in the short left hook for which he is famous, but the champion's shifty footwork and clever blocking made many of his efforts of no avail. White seemed more confident than in their former meeting, and the first two rounds seemed to the spectators to be fairly even.

Welsh's fast left Jab did excellent exceution in the third round and fairly smothered the Chicagoan, who fought back wildly. Freddie landed half a dozen punches to Charley's face without a return. A wild swing of the challenger accidentally landed low, but apparently did no damage to Welsh. White's seconds urged him to mix, but his rushes in most cases were avoided or characterized by the left Jab. Freddie danced around the challenger, landing almost at will in the fifth and sixth rounds. He used a hard right swing to Charlie's head and landed it frequently. White continually tried to whip in his left to the jaw, but Welsh was too shifty to be caught.

White's eyes were puffed from the hampion's blows, and he became so wild in the seventh and eighth rounds that the crowd began to hoot. Welsh timed his blows carefully and drove eral times, but his punches apparently did not serve to slow the champion, al-though his aggressiveness gave him a shade the better of the session, in the opinion of experts.

He continued his rushing tactics in the final round, and Welsh met him toe toe. The champion seemed somewhat ired, but his superior cleverness saved im from any serious punishment announcement made by Lee Magee, manager of the Brooklyn club. Magee said he had obtained Nick Cullop, pitcher for the Kansas City club last year, in exchange for William Bradley, former manager of the Brooklyn Federals; Al Shaw, veteran outfielder, and Bert Maxwell, a pitcher who at one time was with the New York Nationals and jumped from the Toronto club of the International League.

By J. ED GRILLO.

The Federal League now finds itself in the unenviable position of being sued by one of its members. The owners of the Kansas City club refuse to be ignored and have enjoined the league from transferring their franchise to Powers and Sinclair, who propose to place it in Newark, N. J.

This is another illustration of the high-handed manner in which Gilmore and his cohorts operate. Only recently Gilmore insisted that everything had been arranged for the transfer of the Kansas City franchise, but it seems that such was not the case and that the franchise was deliberately taken away from Kansas City without Engineers. Bill James, the Braves' big pitcher, is kicking over the traces. He has sent a demand for $6,000 to President Gaffney, with the statement that he must get this amount or he will not play. It is not likely that Gaffney will make any further concessions to James. The latter is under a contract which is perfectly valid, it is said, and there is no danger of his leaping to the Feds.

The Boston club, which had to win the world series last fall in order to have a balance on the right side of the ledges, does not propose to jeopardize its future by overloading itself with a lot of exorbitant contracts.

Manager Rickey of a serious annoyance, in that he will not have to shift some inexperienced infielder to third base. Austin, while not a top-notcher, is a hustling, fast player, who has done splendld work for the Browns ever since he was traded there by the New York club.

If the performance of Merito Acosta in Cuba this winter gives a correct line on the improvement of the little Cuban, there is a mighty good chance of his breaking into the regular line-up here this season. There is, of course, some difference in the caliber of the pitching in Cuba and in the American League, but for all that a player who hit as well as Acosta did this winter, having an average of close to 350, must have a whole lot of hitting ability.

If Acosta gets away well this spring, he will be played regularly, a fact which is apt to make a big difference in his work. BASE BALL BRIEFS.

Charlie Herzog evidently pays little attention to winter base ball. In spite of all the flattering notices sent from Cuba upon the form of Gonzales, the Red manager is signing every backstop in sight. Herzog will go into training with at least six catchers.

Fans of Detroit will see the Cincinnati Reds for the first time Monday, May 10. Both Detroit and Cincinnati will enloy an off day on that date, Cincinnati getting leeway to make a jump to New York for the first game of the first eastern invasion, and the Tigers being home to await the arrival of the Red Sox. Detroit will jump back from New York to play the Pirates a Sunday game at the City of the Straits June 6

Eddie Plank, veteran southpaw and former idol of the Athletics, has just announced that he was secretly married a short time ago. Plank will leave today for Key West, Fla. to await the St. Louis Federal League elub, which will train in Havana, Cuba.

Davy Robertson, one of McGraw's handy men, has decided to go to Marlin with the first consignment. Robertson, who is completing a college course in the south, has been able to arrange his studies so that he may escape in another week. Robertson was a southpaw when he first commanded McGraw's attention. An injury received in a foot ball game ended his twirling career. He played the outfield part of last season, but is also a rather fair sort of left-handed first baseman.

The final chapter has been written in a disastrous deal made by the San Francisco club. It bought Eddie Colligan from Des Moines in the fall of 1912 and later learned it had purchased a player with a broken ankle. The national commission, however, compelled San Francisco to pay for the player. He was of no use and was turned over to Sacramento, where he drew more pay for not working until the end of the last season. He then reverted to San Francisco and Manager Wolverton gave him his unconditional release. Here is a case of hardship imposed by the commission, but it will be noted that a club owner and not a player got the worst of it, as usual. Colligan played about thirty games in two years, but so far as known didn't miss any pay days. It's a hard life.

Roxie Roach, who was with the New Yorks under Stallings several years ago, is coming back as a present to Wild Bill Donovan. Ed Barrow presented the athlete to Capt. Huston in order to save the flery infielder from a Federal League fate. Donovan, who is familiar with Roach's International League form, believes the young man will be valuable for utility duty.

Experienced Smokers "Roll Their Own"

"Bull" Durham is not the smoke of novices or dabblers in tobacco enjoyment, but of connoisseurs, smokers of experience, whose tastes have been trained to a fine discrimination and appreciation of tobacco quality. These men—and their name is legion—prefer the fresh cigarettes they roll for themselves with mellow, delicious "Bull" Durham tobacco to any other kind. Their expert preference has made it smart, fashionable, correct, to "roll your own" with

GENUINE SMOKING TOBACCO

The delicate, rich, mellow-sweet fragrance of this leaf can only be retained in the bulk of tobacco in the "Bull" Durham sack, and enjoyed in the freshrolled cigarette. That is why "Bull" Durham hand made cigarettes have a distinctive, unique, delightful aroma, found in no other cigarettes and in no other tobacco. That's why "Bull" Durham gives experienced smokers throughout the world supreme enjoyment and wholesome satisfaction.

An Illustrated Booklet, showing correct way to "Roll Your Own" Cigarettes, and a package of cigarette-papers, will both be mailed, free, to any address in U. S. on Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N. C. THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY
